

Like old GM trucks??

Welcome to our Virtual Garage!

The Stovebolt Page is the Web's oldest, most complete online informational resource for the old truck hobby. Trucks built to be trucks mean something here. We have purists, preservers, hotrodders, and modernizers -- but we all love these old trucks. We have knowledge and we share it for free. So pull up a virtual running board and join the crew.

We have How to's, FAQ's, Don't Do's and Honey Do's -- in fact, we have lots of information on restoring your old truck -- from links to parts vendors (the best list of Stovebolt-related links on the 'Net!), a Gallery of approximately 2,000 trucks to a virtual Swap Meet where you can find (or sell) those elusive parts. We even have a discussion forum with more than 11,000 registered users!

If you like old trucks and dirt roads then you're one of "Us" too.

Features

- Discussion Forums -- More than 12,000 registered users
- Gallery -- Nearly 2,000 trucks belonging to Stovebolters worldwide
- Tech Tips -- Advice and how-to's on restoration, modification & much more
